BITE PUT ON NIPPERS

AN Englishman believes he has found a way to defeat that most Scottish scourge - the midge.

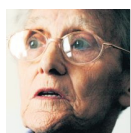

George Costa claims to have discovered a secret ingredient in a plant found in China which sends Highland midges packing.

He has produced the Arnywear range of fabric items, including towels, wristbands, sarongs and bed sheets, containing the magic repellent. Arnywear, stocked by Boots, is claimed to keep bugs at bay from up to 20 inches.
