

5

THINGS WE LOVE THIS MONTH

EMERGENCY SHIRT SERVICE

Lipstick on your collar? Eton Shirts can deliver a brand-new shirt to anywhere in London within one hour. 65 Kingsway, London WC2. Tel: +44 (0)20 7430 1433; www.etonshirts.co.uk

THE KOHLER WATERS SPA

Opening this month at the Old Course Hotel in St Andrews is the Kohler Waters Spa, themed on the therapeutic benefits of water. Perfect for winter cocooning. Old Course Hotel, St Andrews, Fife, Scotland. Tel: +44 (0)1334 474371; www.oldcoursehotel.co.uk

iFABRIC

Forget messy insect repellents, a range of beachwear will do it all for you. The Amywear sarongs, bandanas and wraps are made from iFabric, engineered with a natural repellent, emitting a lavender scent. Perfect for kids who may be allergic to Deet, found in most repellents. Available at www.boots.com

THE DUNHILL PETROLHEAD WATCH

The new Dunhill Petrolhead watch uses a fuel gauge to show the power reserve of the Swiss automatic movement of the watch. Très chic. £1,850. Tel: +44 (0)8454 580779

RETRO DIGITAL CAMERAS

Who wants a cookie-cutter

OVERHEARD AT THE CAROUSEL, LAGOS AIRPORT

"I'll meet you at the taxi rank. Just waiting for my sluggage." The vexed traveller was holding on for his cases to hit the baggage reclaim carousel. 'Sluggage' are the cases that always come out last. And they are always yours.

Email your own suggestions for buzzwords to high.life@cedar.com.co.uk compact snapper when you can go suave? Pick of the old-school bunch is the Leica D-Lux 2, that belies its wide-angle 4 x zoom, image stabiliser and 2.5in digital display with sleek, 50s styling. Positively Rat Pack. £548. www.leica-camera.co.uk

Smart money: (clockwise from above left) get a shirt delivered by Eton Shirts; the Dunhill Petrolhead watch; the Leica D-Lux 2